RUSSIA GAINS NEW VICTORIES

PATHFINDER IS SUNK BY NORTH SEA MINE

British Cruiser Blown Up Saturday Near Saint Abb's Head

FIFTY OF CREW AND CAPTAIN ARE SAVED

Water Strwn With Wreckage
Of Every Description For Great Distance

London, Sept. 6.—(Delayed.)—It is learned on reliable authority that the captain and fifty of the crew of the British cruiser Pathfinder, which was sunk by a mine in the North sea, have been saved.

The destruction of the Pathfinder occurred about four o'clock Saturday afternoon at a point ten miles northeast of Saint Abb's Head, Scotland. While she patrolled the coast, the cruiser struck a mine which exploded near her magazine. Trawlers ten miles distant saw the shock. From Eyemouth, fourteen miles from the scene of the explosion, a huge cloud of smoke was visible on the horizon. A torpedo boat destroyer was sent to the rescue. She was followed by the Saint Abb's motor life-boat.

The Pathfinder was literally blown to pieces and the sea was strewn with wreckage.

The devastating effect of the explosion is emphasized in the report of Coxswain Nesbitt, of the Saint Abb's motor life-boat. He said that for a mile and a half the water was strewn with wreckage of every description. There was little of the pieces that was larger than a man's leg. In the midst of the debris he found floating a ship's bible and collections of personal articles from the ship's cabins.

A message received in London this morning states that in addition to the motor life-boat several steam drifters hurried to the spot where the Pathfinder sank, and adds that it is learned on reliable authority that the captain of the Pathfinder and some of the fifty or sixty of his crew were saved. About ninety of the crew of the Pathfinder, dead and wounded, were picked up by torpedo boats and taken to a hospital at the naval base. Captain Leake and several other officers were saved. According to official announcement the casualties among the officers were one killed, eight missing, one seriously wounded and one slightly wounded.

An eyewitness describing the sinking of the cruiser, said: "In less than a minute after the explosion we saw the wreck of two vessels and suddenly two torpedo boats came into view tearing through the water. We tried to attract their attention, but they made straight for the scene of the wreck. I don't know how any wireless operator could have sent a message from the cruiser, as there seemed to be no time for anything. The ship's back must have been broken and the two minutes following the explosion and before she sank must have been terrible. But somebody seems to have kept his head and a wireless message certainly was sent out. Three other destroyers soon arrived. One appeared to have been standing by the guns and on the outlook for submarines."

The Pathfinder was a light cruiser of 2,940 tons. She carried 9 four-inch guns and was attached to the eighth flotilla. Her captain was Frances M. Leake.

ITALIAN SOCIALISTS APPROVE NEUTRALITY

Victory of Triple Entente Would Aid Universal Disarmament is Reform Party Opinion.

Paris, Sept. 7.—A dispatch to the Havas Agency from Rome says members of the Italian Socialist reform party met in Rome last night and adopted resolutions approving the declaration of Italian neutrality in the present war.

The meeting recorded its opinion that the victory of the triple entente, Great Britain, France and Russia, would not only aid universal disarmament, but at the same time open the way to an exchange of national opinions and help the proletariat both socially and economically. It declared also that the victory of the entente powers would assure Italy's predominance over Austro-Hungary in Balkan matters.

SET PRISONERS FREE.

Paris, Sept. 7.—A dispatch to the Havas Agency from Petrograd says the political prisoners in Lemberg, Galicia, were set at liberty by the Russians soon after they entered the city.

TERMONDE FORCED TO SURRENDER BY TWENTY THOUSAND

London, Sept. 7.—The correspondent of the Express, wiring from Termonde, sixteen miles from Ghent under date of Saturday, says: "Termonde has fallen after six hours of fighting. The little force of 6,000 Belgians made a gallant defence but the enemy was 20,000 strong and the Belgians were unable to reply effectively to the deadly fire of the German siege guns.

"The Germans began the attack between 2 and 3 o'clock Saturday morning and the rain of shells over the town was incessant until nine. It was a hopeless task, attempting to hold earthworks against such odds, and one by one the slender defences were abandoned. The defenders were able to leave in good order without serious losses and went by way of Berleser and Overmeir in the direction of Ghent.

"After entering the town the Germans set it on fire and throughout the morning dense clouds of smoke overhung the town. Not three miles away the peasants, with strange and dull apathy were still working in their gardens, sometimes turning to watch the smoke. Only the children seemed afraid.

"I sighted German outposts from Termonde within three miles of Ghent and there are indications that they will almost immediately occupy Ghent. The people are greatly excited and many are preparing for flight."

COST GERMANY 5,000 TO TAKE TERMONDE MANY WERE DROWNED

London, Sept. 7.—Telegraphing from Ostend, a correspondent of Reuter's Telegram company says the German casualties in the fighting around Termonde, sixteen miles east of Ghent, Friday and Saturday, were estimated at 5,000 men. A number of German soldiers were drowned when the dykes around Termonde were cut, and several German guns were lost in the flood.

Continuing, the correspondent says the Germans advanced Sunday in a northerly direction from Brussels, between Ghent and Antwerp.

To-day all telegraphic and railroad communication between those towns is interrupted. Several hotels in Ostend are closed for fear of the arrival of the German invaders. An engagement occurred Sunday at Cordage, south of Ghent. Belgian cyclists and gendarmes had a sharp engagement with the enemy, which resulted in the Belgians retreating before a superior force. A Belgian major was killed.

BRITISH ARMY NOW REFITTED AND HAS JOINED ITS UNITS

London, Sept. 6.—The official information bureau made public to-day a summary of the situation in France. It says that five quiet days since the action on September 1 have been occupied by the British with refitting and the consolidation of units. The British army is now south of the Marne and in line with the French on the right and left. The French army, it is stated, defeated three German army corps, driving them back in disorder near Guise on August 29.

The official statement says that the British successfully guarded the left flank of the whole line of the French army until the seventh and fifth armies of the French came into operation on the British left and right. The French reinforcements greatly relieved the strain and pressure on the allies' left wing.

It is stated that there has been no main trial of strength during the past week. The battles have been of strategic withdrawals and contractions.

WHITE-HAIRED MEN ARE UNDER ARMS IN GERMANY

Every Man Able to Carry Rifle is Ordered to Take His Share in War.

London, Sept. 7.—A dispatch to the Times from Brussels reports that many of the Landstrum troops drilling daily are men with white hair which the correspondent says shows that Germany called on every man able to bear a rifle. Similar statements are made by those who have seen German soldiers proceeding north to Antwerp.

The Germans have placed siege guns around Brussels. These are of heavy calibre and are sunk in concrete. "I learn from a sure source," the Times correspondent at Ostend continues, "that Emperor William was at Brussels Wednesday evening, staying at the Hotel Bellevue the same night. He appointed General von Lutwitz governor of Belgium."

VERDUN NOW SCENE OF DECISIVE BATTLE

Armies About Equally Divided; French Have Best Defensive Position

SPECULATION REGARDING GERMAN ARMY MOVEMENT

Kaiser is Reported To Be in Vicinity of Franco-German
Frontier

London, Sept. 7.—The belief is growing that a great decisive battle is being fought at Verdun, the strong fortress of France on the Meuse, near the French frontier.

If the fourth German army, marching southward, cuts off the retreat of the French eastern armies which recently have been holding the Germans in check between Toul, a fortified town fourteen miles west of Nancy and Epinal, also strongly fortified and near the Alsace frontier, it might repeat the coup which in 1870 drove General Charles Denis Sauter Bourbaki and his army of 150,000 men into Switzerland.

Hopeful critics are speculating on the possibility that the Germans swing around to the south may mean an effort on the part of the invaders to make sure of their retreat through the Meuse district, but more likely it is a scheme to attempt a paralyzing blow to the French army, to render the investment of Paris a safe operation. The southerly movement of the Germans may effect a junction of the crown prince's army and the army of Bavaria which has been held on the defensive in Lorraine. Thus the Germans would advance from the east and north in a vast enveloping movement destined to crush the allies on the right wing by sheer weight of numbers, just as their left was pushed back during the last fortnight.

These preliminary movements, if showing nothing else, at least prove that the Germans realize that the siege of Paris and its occupation is quite worthless from a strategic standpoint while the allies are free in the field. Corroboration of the above-mentioned theory is contained in a dispatch from Berlin, which describes a battle in a difficult country between Verdun and Rethel as the deciding conflict as far as France is concerned. This dispatch states that the opposing forces are almost equally divided, but that the French have the advantage of the fighting from a defensive position of their own choosing.

Another significant factor is the general understanding that Emperor William is inspecting the field of operation in this neighborhood. Reports disagree as to his exact whereabouts, but all agree that he is in the vicinity of the Franco-German border. This dispatch states that the capture of the French fortresses would be a blow to France, while the repulse of the German army will give the French a chance to assume the offensive, a course needed on account of its moral effect in the western theatre of the war.

Mines in the North Sea are becoming such a menace that it may be closed to navigation during the night time. The admiralty notice gives the right to put out the coast lights at any time, which would make it difficult for German minelayers to continue their work.

FOUR PRIZES TAKEN ARRIVE AT HONGKONG

American and Three German Steamers. Former Appeals to United States Consul.

Shanghai, Sept. 7.—Hongkong reports the arrival there of a number of prizes, including the American steamer Hanamet and the German steamers Paklat, Frisia and Rajaburi.

The prize crew of the Paklat held the German engineers at work for three days at the point of revolvers and frustrated an attempt to disable the engines. The American steamer Hanamet is 2,703 tons burden, and is owned by W. K. Atz, of Shanghai. The Paklat and the Rajaburi are owned by the North German Lloyd, the former being of 1,227 tons burden and the Rajaburi 1,189 tons. The Frisia is a ship of 3,150 tons.

Both the Hanamet and the Frisia have previously been reported as having been seized. The Hanamet is suspected of carrying contraband. Her owner has appealed to the American consul at Shanghai for indemnification.

General Joffre || Commander of French Army.

General Joffre was reported yesterday as having succeeded in turning the German lines. The same report said Sir John French had got around on the left of the German army.

FRENCH BEHIND GERMANS FIRING AT THEIR BACKS

Paris, Sept. 7.—In the fighting which is going on to-day to the east and northeast of Paris, the German forces have their back toward the capital. French troops are harassing their march. From time to time the Germans turn and engage the French at their backs. French shells fall continuously in the German rear.

Observers consider that it is obvious that the Germans could not attack Paris while the French armies were intact and are continuing their wide turning movement under perilous circumstances.

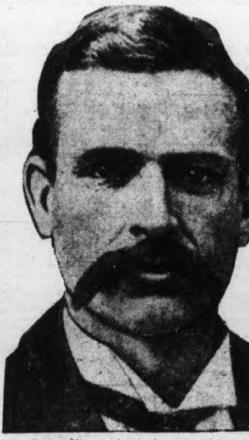

Germans are Obligated to Retire. Judging from reports made public in Paris, German troops covering the flanks of the main German army encountered advance detachments of the allies in the fighting east of the capital to-day at a point near LaFerte Gaucher and were obliged to retire.

Paris, Sept. 7.—A general action is to-day proceeding to the east of Paris from Nanteuil Le Haudouin to Verdun, according to an official communication given out this afternoon.

Nanteuil le Haudouin is 25 miles northeast of the city of Paris and ten miles southeast of Senlis. The distance from Nanteuil le Haudouin to Verdun is roughly 120 miles. The text of the official notice is as follows: "A general action started on the line through Nanteuil le Haudouin, Meaux, Sezanne, and Vitry le Francois and extending to Verdun. "Thanks to the vigorous action of our troops, strongly supported by the

LABOR PARTY IS SUBSTANTIALLY AHEAD IN AUSTRALIAN ELECTION

HON. ANDREW FISHER

Leader of Australian Labor Party and Prime Minister Prior to the Election of the Cook Ministry.

Sydney, N. S. W., Sept. 6.—Although thousands of votes have not been counted, the returns indicate a substantial victory for the Labor party in the federal elections.

The dissolution of the federal parliament necessitating the present elections was unique in the history of the commonwealth, being a double dissolution, both the house and the senate being dissolved on plea of the Liberal government by Sir William Ferguson, the governor-general, because the senate rejected a bill which aimed to prohibit preference to casual labor unionist employees in government service.

The parliament had lasted about a year with a Liberal majority in the house and a Labor majority in the senate. The result was almost a deadlock. The opposing leaders are the premier, Hon. Joseph Cook (Liberal) and Hon. Andrew Fisher (Labor). Both men are self-made, both having begun life as trades unionists. The efforts of the campaign include trust legislation, tariff reform, a constitutional amendment to provide a national referendum as a substitute for the dissolution of parliament; an amendment to give greater force to the industrial arbitration act and means of national defence, as well as characteristic Antipodean legislation, such as federal provisions for cures for cancer and consumption, and a federal public service superannuation.

GALICIAN FORTRESS SOON TO SURRENDER LEAVES ROAD CLEAR

Overthrow of Austrian Army of Thirty Divisions Strengthened by German Corps Expected in Few Days—Twelve Divisions Destroyed

Squadron of Kaiser's Death's Head Hussars Cut Up in Poland — Austrians Lose Heavily on Several Battlefields

London, Sept. 7.—Official reports from Russia state that Russian troops are gradually surrounding Przemsyl, which will soon either surrender or be taken by assault.

Przemsyl is a strong fortress fifty miles west of Lemberg, and its fall would mean the loss by the Austrians of the last stronghold in Galicia. It would clear the way for the advance of the Russians westward toward the junction of their forces on the East Prussian frontier.

A Petrograd dispatch to the Daily Mail dated Sunday says that the Bourse Gazette reports that a squadron of Death's Head Hussars, of which the Crown Prince was commander during his stay at Danzig, was defeated and cut up near Rococzin, in Poland. Count Colberg, the commander of the squadron, and all the other officers were among the fallen.

Austrians Lose Heavily Near Lemberg.

The correspondent of the Times at Petrograd under date of Sunday, referring to a battle just begun, which, if as successful as the Russian operations against Lemberg, will overthrow the Austrian forces and practically open the road to Berlin, says: "Reliable information as to the progress of the battle enables me to state that the outlook is no whit less promising, but that several days may elapse before the final overthrow of the Austrian army. The enemy possesses at least thirty divisions, besides several German corps and will fight with the courage of despair.

"Twelve divisions of the Austrian army in the vicinity of Lemberg, Galicia, have been destroyed."

Great Losses Sustained Near Lublin.

On the East Prussian front there is news of the appearance of part, if not the whole, of the third Bavarian army corps. The troops were installed at Allenstein, which is being reconnoitred by Russian cavalry.

Paris, Sept. 7.—According to advices received here, a second Austrian army operating in front of Krasnosedow, in the Lublin region, has suffered great losses and is now on the defensive. Some of the Austrians have been forced to retreat.

Many Prisoners Taken by Russians.

Paris, Sept. 7.—The Havas Agency correspondent at Petrograd transmits the following official statement: "The Russians adopted extensive offensive tactics September 4, along the entire Austrian battle front. The enemy's centre, located in the region of Kraustave, bore the Russian attack. The 35th Austrian infantry was surrounded and the commander, forty-four officers and 1,600 men were taken prisoners.

"The German division which came to the aid of the Austrians was attacked on the left bank of the Vistula.

"Russian troops have occupied the region around Stryj and Russian cavalry is in possession of the Carpathian heights.

"In Eastern Prussia only light skirmishes have been reported."

GERMANS TO REOPEN BELGIAN GUN FACTORY

London, Sept. 7.—A dispatch to the Chronicle from Amsterdam says that the Germans are preparing to re-open immediately the gun factories at Cockerill, near Liege. These factories, covering 375 acres, were one of the first prizes captured by the Germans in the war.

The whole concern has been taken over by the Prussian war office, which has offered the Belgian workmen fifty per cent increase in wages to remain at their places.

BOMBARDMENT TERRIBLE

London, Sept. 7.—The correspondent of the Chronicle at Ghent says that terrible havoc has been done at Termonde by the German bombardment.

SERVIA WOULD PROVE REPORTS OF SUCCESSES

Geneva, via Paris, Sept. 7.—Austria, having denied the announced Serbian successes, Nikola Paichitch, the foreign minister, telegraphed the Serbian consul at Geneva Sunday inviting two members of the British press to come to Serbia at Serbia's expense to verify the victories.

THOSE RELATIONSHIPS AT LOUVAIN PLEASANT

Germany Expects the World To Believe Its Story of Burning City

London, Sept. 6.—A dispatch to the Wolff bureau from Berlin, by way of Copenhagen says that the Nord Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung has published the following official statement:

"Belgium is circulating officially a false account of the occurrences for which Louvain was compelled to suffer. It is declared that German troops were repulsed by a sortie from Antwerp, and were mistakenly fired upon by our troops in Louvain, and that this caused the burning of Louvain.

"As a matter of fact events proved undoubtedly that the Germans repulsed the Belgian sortie. During this engagement the Germans in Louvain were attacked unquestionably in pursuance of an organized plan in different parts of the city. This happened after the Germans had been in pleasant relations with the inhabitants of Louvain for more than 24 hours.

"This attack was first made on a battalion of the Landstrum, composed principally of middle-aged and peaceful men, themselves fathers of families. Others attacked members of the staff of the commanding general. The Germans lost numbers of dead and wounded. Nevertheless they gained the upper hand with the help of newly arrived troops, who themselves were greeted with rifle fire at the railroad station.

"An investigation is under way, the result of which will be made public. The truth of the statements made in the foregoing is beyond all doubt. The Hotel de Ville was saved from fire. Efforts to extinguish the flames elsewhere were unavailing."

Commenting on the occurrences in Louvain, the Allgemeine Zeitung says: "German diplomats in the dual states have been furnished with material to refute those lying accusations against the German army. The German minister at The Hague also has been instructed to ask the Dutch government to urge the Belgian government in the interest of humanity to stop the civil population of Belgium from continuing a resistance which is so completely futile. The Dutch minister of foreign affairs transmitted this request to the Belgian minister at The Hague, who in turn promised to forward it to his government."

PUBLIC WANTS TRUTH SAYS LONDON TIMES

London, Sept. 5.—The London Times editorially deals with the British system of censoring news dispatches. It calls attention to the fact that the German government has always understood the value of presenting its own news to the public abroad and says: "Englishmen are apt to regard this kind of propaganda with contempt. They believe that truth will prevail over untruth, no matter how scientific, and that the long run their confidence is no doubt justified, but in the present circumstances the practice of giving lies too long a start may be attended by serious drawbacks."

ROBLIN OFFERS FLOUR PARLIAMENT TO MEET

Ottawa, Sept. 5.—It has just been disclosed here that Sir Rodmond Roblin, premier of Manitoba, through official channels, has offered 500 bags of flour to the Imperial government.

Winnipeg, Sept. 5.—A proclamation was issued this morning calling for a meeting of the provincial parliament on Sept. 15, when two measures will be submitted for the consideration of the legislature. One of these is to give the necessary authority for the issue of provincial securities to comply with the conditions that are necessary to secure the advantages that are provided by the federal authorities in regard to temporary financial assistance to meet war conditions. The other is to deal with payments on real property.

WILLIAM OF WIED HAS ONE THOUGHT THAT FOR ALBANIA

Paris, Sept. 6.—A Havas Agency dispatch from Venice, says that Prince William of Wied, who has withdrawn from his new kingdom of Albania, has arrived at Venice, on the Italian ship Misugata.

A proclamation issued by Prince William to the people when he left Albania is given in a Rome dispatch to the Havas Agency. It follows: "Albanians: When your delegates came to offer me the crown of Albania I responded with the crown of the appeal of a noble, chivalrous people, who asked me to second them in the work of national revival.

"I came to you animated with the most ardent wish to aid you in this patriotic endeavor, and you have seen me from the outset consecrate all my efforts to the reorganization of the country and the destruction of giving you a good administration and justice for all. "However, inauspicious events have thwarted our common efforts. Some minds, blinded by a passion not understood, opposed reforms and would not grant credit to the government. Besides, the war, which has just broken out in Europe, has complicated our situation.

"I have, therefore, no thought to leave the work to which I wish to consecrate my strength and my life. It will be useful that I go for some time to the Occident, but whether far or near, I shall have only one thought, that of working for the prosperity of the noble, chivalrous Albanian country. During my absence the international controlling commission will assure a government."

FRENCH ARTILLERY FIRE TOO MUCH FOR GERMANY

Commander Tells of Two Hours' Bombardment and Then Hoisting of White Flag.

Paris, Sept. 6.—How a German force of 5,000 men, massed in front of the French fort at Luneville was surprised and mowed down by the French artillery has been related to a correspondent of the Journal at Certe by the German commander, who is now a prisoner at Certe.

The Germans were surprised by the French artillery, the German officer relates, which bombarded them for two hours with such deadly effect that only 300 men were left. The commander held a conference with 21 officers and non-commissioned officers remaining and it was unanimously decided to hoist the white flag, all resistance having become useless.

REASON IS GIVEN FOR SCANTY WAR REPORTS

Berlin, Sept. 6.—Commenting to-day on the scantiness of war news in Berlin, an officer of the general staff explained that the leading military authorities originally had planned to give out much fuller reports, and that they would have done so if the situation had been similar to that at Mukden during the Russo-Japanese war, where the lengthy combats from position to position with occasional intervals of rest made a summary of events possible. The present rush of the German forces into France, it was explained, made it impossible to follow this procedure, for the reason that not only was there no time, but the leaders themselves knew only the general results and had no information concerning details.

DAUGHTERS OF RUSSIAN GENERAL WOULD ENLIST

London, Sept. 6.—The Petrograd correspondent of the Times telegraphs a story that two daughters of General Tomilovskoy, one of the Russian commanders, have volunteered for the war. In compliance with their persistent request they have been permitted to dress themselves in soldiers' uniforms and will be sent to advance positions.

NO DUM DUM BULLETS USED IN BRITISH ARMY

London, Sept. 6.—The British government to-day made official denial to the German charges that dum-dum bullets had been found on English and French prisoners. The statement follows: "Neither the British nor the French has in its possession or has issued any but approved pattern of rifle and revolver ammunition, which do not infringe in any respect the provisions of The Hague convention."

RUSSIAN CAPITAL HAS UNDERGONE NO CHANGE

London, Sept. 5.—Telegraphing from Petrograd, the correspondent of Reuters Telegram company sets forth that after month of war the general appearance of the Russian capital has undergone no change. The public life continues as usual. Yesterday all the Petrograd schools began their terms as usual, the correspondent continues, and commerce throughout the interior of the empire goes on just as smoothly as in normal times. There has been a considerable drop in price of foodstuffs, of which there are enormous quantities for all requirements. No food products are being exported.

PARIS IS CALM

Paris, Sept. 6.—After the first exodus of women and children, calm has returned and the citizens exhibit absolute assurance.

FRANCE IS WAITING FOR FATE OF PARIS

Germans Avoiding Hard Fight There and Moving to South and East

Paris, Sept. 6.—France sits waiting for news of a battle which will decide the fate of Paris. There are no official bulletins. Outside the fortifications are the baggage trains and the wounded of the allied armies. In the distance are the fighting men, but at what distance and in what condition no one can say.

Outside the fortifications of the city the Germans are carrying on the most puzzling movement of the campaign. They seem to be turning to the south and east and avoiding Paris, into which the allies have sought to draw them.

Following a conference between the president and Minister of War Millerad, in which the latter presented the latest report, it was announced in Bordeaux that the situation is unchanged.

The German attack is plainly a converging movement designed to split the French-British army in two. It has been stated by war experts that this movement cannot continue because of the extent to which the German lines have been drawn out.

It was announced at military headquarters here early this morning that the German troops have evacuated the district between Compiègne and Senlis. It is stated that this action followed a continuation of their turning movement away from Paris toward the southeast, seemingly with the intention of effecting a junction with their left or centre.

The general situation was described as satisfactory in the official statement. The report says: "The respective positions of the Austrian and German armies on our left continued practically unchanged. The enemy's manoeuvres in an attempt to envelop our lines seem to have been definitely prevented."

"The bombardment of the positions at Maubeuge continues, with the besieged defenders (probably British) resisting to the utmost. Three of the forts have fallen but the resistance is well maintained.

"The situation on our centre and right wings remains unchanged.

"The German army continues to retire from the neighborhood of Paris and continues the movement toward the southeast begun two days ago."

The activity in the forts outside of Paris was redoubled last night. The great searchlights on the forts and on the Eiffel Tower alternately swept the skies, searching for the German aviators who may now be expected to attempt a night attack or cross outlying territory to seek to locate the advance of the enemy's skirmishers. The armored trains on the narrow gauge railroads which connect the chain of forts were manned and ready. At every gun the men were ready, waiting the signal to act.

General Gallieni remained at his post. His aides, with their high-powered automobiles, manned by the most expert chauffeurs in the world, the men who in peace times handled the racing cars in competition for the richest prizes in the automobile world but who are now pawns in the great war game, sped here and there carrying out his will. The gates of the city were closed. None came or went without military pass and the means of identification that showed the right to go and come. The city itself continued unchanged in most respects. As on every night since the original declaration of martial law the public resorts were closed early. The lights on the main streets are extinguished chiefly because they would prove advantageous in localities where the course to German aviators.

It is conceded that there is grave danger of an invasion of the skies, not only by German aviators in their aeroplanes but also that the Zeppelins might be drafted into service. At the outer forts the French aviators remained at their posts. They also have armored aeroplanes and the courses they were to follow should the enemy appear had been carefully laid out so that their machines could be distinguished from the Germans.

HISTORIC BUILDING OF LOUVAIN STANDS

London, Sept. 5.—A dispatch to the Nieuw Rotterdamse Courant serves to confirm earlier reports that the historic Hotel De Ville, which is a beautiful example of late Gothic architecture, was spared by the Germans when they burned the town of Louvain.

Though the first stories given out to the town as being nothing but a heap of ashes, a later official announcement said that only the central part of Louvain had been burned.

TO OPERATE TELEGRAPHS

Amsterdam, Sept. 6.—An official dispatch from Berlin says that in the Belgian district occupied by Germans official post and telegraph services will soon be opened under the supervision of the general post office at Berlin.

ALL RUSSIA'S STRENGTH NOW AGAINST GERMANY

Importance of Victories at Lemberg and Halicz Shown By Ambassador.

Rome, Sept. 6.—M. Krowpinski, the Russian ambassador to Italy, commenting to-day on the Russian advance into Galicia, says that the possession of Lemberg and Halicz was exceptionally important. It gave the Russians command of the whole of Galicia on the left bank of the Dniester river, he said, with the possibility of easily continuing their offensive operations to the south of the Carpathian mountains. The Russian objective was the complete defeat of the Austrian army, the ambassador declared. They would thus be enabled to centre all their strength against Germany.

FRENCH ARE HOLDING CONTROL OF MAUBEUGE

Germans Admit That Fortress is Putting Up Resistance Against Bombardment.

London, Sept. 6.—According to reports current in military quarters in London, a portion of the British expeditionary force is at Maubeuge, a French fortress of the first class in the department of Du Nord, assisting the French garrison there in a defence which is being stoutly maintained. German official reports admit that the fortress still remains in French hands.

BORDEAUX, NOW SEAT OF GOVERNMENT, IS CROWDED

Bordeaux, Sept. 5.—This city has become overcrowded through the arrival of the members of the government, foreign legations, newspapermen and many travellers. The hotels, restaurants and the street cars are packed with people. Rooms in the principal hotels have been requisitioned for the use of officers of the government, and the usual occupants were forced to vacate. The staffs of the embassies have located at Arcachon, a popular summer resort, 35 miles southwest of this city.

NINE SHOT DURING HINDU DISTURBANCE

Employee of Immigration Department Said to Have Committed Deed

Vancouver, Sept. 7.—Bhag Singh died yesterday afternoon, and Baden Singh at 6.30 in the evening, both Hindus being victims of a wholesale shooting affray which took place on Saturday night in the Hindu temple, 1865 Second avenue, West. Six other Hindus now lie in the general hospital, and one of them, Uttum Singh, who is shot through the left lung just below the heart, lies in a precarious condition, which may end in death. Five others bear wounds of more or less serious nature. The two dead Hindus, in their deathbed depositions, charged Bela Singh with the shooting, and the shooting and this charge is supported by the wounded Hindus also.

The dead are: Herman Singh, found last Monday with throat cut, near Kitsilano car barns; Argan Singh, shot through throat by Ram Singh, on Thursday, at 1747 Third avenue west; Bhag Singh, Hindu priest, shot through lungs and abdomen in temple, Second avenue, North Vancouver; Badan Singh, Second avenue.

Wounded: Uttum Singh, North Vancouver; Puttam Singh, North Vancouver, wounded in left knee.

Labh Singh, Wilson road, Point Grey, shot twice in forearm and through right knee.

Sohan Lal, Fort-eighth avenue south, shot in right knee.

Jawalah Singh, shot through the body, a brother of Argan Singh (deceased).

Dalip Singh, Victoria, slight wound in left thigh.

Another Sikh, whose name is given as Badan Singh, not in the hospital, believed to have received flesh wound in leg. Not the same Badan Singh, of Second avenue.

Bhag Singh, beaten up by three compatriots on down-town wharf.

Nine Hindus were shot, three of whom are mortally wounded, in an affray in the Sikh temple, Second avenue, Kitsilano, at 7.45 p. m. Saturday. Bela Singh, employed by the Dominion government immigration department, is alleged to have done the shooting. It is understood that he will claim that it was done in self defence after he was threatened with death.

Bhag Singh, president of the temple and priest of the Sikh religion, died yesterday at 1.30 p. m. Uttum Singh, who was shot through the lungs, is still battling for life, but his chances for recovery are regarded as very slight.

Israel I. Rubinowitz, J. P., Inspector Hopkinson and several members of the detective force were present and took another statement from Bhag Singh just before he died.

The trouble Saturday is the culmination of the factional differences arising out of the refusal of the authorities to allow entry to Canada of the undesirable immigrants from Shanghai, who came here last May on board of the Komagata Maru. Two tragedies disclosed last week are attributed to the same cause. Herman Singh's dead body was found last Monday in the throat at 1747 Third avenue on Thursday night by Ram Singh, who has been arrested by the police, and will be charged with murder.

Saturday afternoon the body of Argan Singh was cremated, and following the ceremony at the cemetery, those present returned to the Sikh temple to go through certain religious rites. All those present in the temple were kneeling at prayer, witnesses declare, when Bela Singh entered the place and took his place on the floor near Bhag Singh, the priest.

Bhag Singh was bowed in prayer, it is said, when Bela Singh arose and drawing two 32-calibre automatic pistols from his coat pockets took deliberate aim at the kneeling priest and shot him through the back.

Instantly all the worshippers sprang to their feet and rushed towards the exits. As they ran Bela Singh continued to shoot. The rear door behind the altar was instantly jammed by the panic-stricken mob of men who endeavored to force their way outside to safety, and as they pushed, shoved and tore at each other in their mad efforts to escape from the hall of lead, Bela Singh stood back and emptied his guns into the screaming, screaming mass of humanity.

One Hindu ran to the nearest telephone and informed the authorities. The ambulance was sent for and was loaded with wounded and sent to the hospital, where everything had been made ready to receive them.

While the police are very reticent on the matter it is understood that they have evidence that Bela Singh was hit by a bullet in the head which he himself was who summoned the police when Argan Singh was shot on Thursday night. This and his open friendliness to the authorities made him particularly obnoxious to the revolutionaries.

CANADIAN PACIFIC TO HOLD SPECIAL MEETING

Ottawa, Sept. 5.—Notice has appeared in the Canadian Gazette of the thirty-third annual general meeting of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company to be held on October 7 next, at Montreal. The meeting is for the purpose of considering, and, if approved, of giving authority for an increase of the present authorized ordinary capital stock of the company by the amount of $75,000,000, that is, from $250,000,000 to $325,000,000, in order to make it accord with the amount for which the company has the sanction of government. No portion of the additional stock is to be issued until the authority of the shareholders has been obtained at a special meeting to be called for the purpose.

"Campbells"—To Whom the Women of Victoria Look for New Style Creations

LITERALLY a mass of temptations just now is "The Fashion Centre." 'Tis not to be wondered at that the woman and miss simply wants everything they see. Each Suit, Coat, Gown or Blouse is more fascinating than the last. It is always possible to accurately gauge the trend of to-morrow's fashion from seeing what "Campbells'" are displaying.

Such Smart Dresses at $15 to $32.50

For Afternoon and Street Wear (See Window Display)

VALUE. In almost every ad you've noticed how frequently we use the word "value," and that word would be quite in place if we used it in every item of every ad. A woman appreciates value just as much as style, and at "Campbells'" she gets both. In these Dresses are values indeed:

Dresses of heavy fancy crepe with long overskirt, lace and silk trimmed, with velvet girdle and petite silk vest effect.

Dresses of the new ripple cord, showing the long Russian tunic trimmed with tapestry brocade and fancy silk buttons.

Dresses of fine serge, showing the new, and very charming basque bodice; over-tunic and underskirt.

Dresses of the new diamond weave cloth in shade of magenta; a one-piece dress made in three-piece effect; touches of fur and pan velvet girdle.

Of colors there are many—navy blues, light blues, various shades of tan and brown, blacks—in fact bright and sombre shades to suit you all.

A very smart girls' fawn and white diagonal tweed Coat, trimmed with self and white plaid collar, cuffs and a touch of plaid on the pocket. Style and size exactly as illustrated. Price $7.75

Fall Coats for the Children (SEE WINDOW DISPLAY)

There's a wealth of garment beauty for the little ones, especially in these stunning little Coats.

Coats for the "Tots" at $3.75 to $15

"Chic" little black Coats of heavy corded silk, with ermine collars and lined white.

Silk Moire Velvet Coats with collars and cuffs of black fox, trimmed with low sash of black fox.

Military style Coats of black seal plush with satin belts.

Tango frieze cloth Coats trimmed with check collar, cuffs and belt.

Useful little tweed Coats with the Raglan shoulders and sleeves, military style.

Little white polar bear Coats, trimmed with ermine heads and tails.

Coats for Girls of 6 to 14, $4.75 to $27.50

A very magnificent range of these, one, for instance, for a girl of eight years, is a smart Coat in waffle check of a combination of tango and green; the coat shows the new flare skirt; collar trimmed of green velvet.

Pretty new Coats in astrachan cloth, seal plush, corduroy velvets, friezes, chinchillas, tweeds, Teddy bear cloths.

A number of these Coats have the low belt effect and high Russian collars. There are also a few in red and black, and grey and black plaids with yoke and Raglan sleeves.

Many dainty forms of trimming, and as to colors, there isn't a shade missing.

MOVING PICTURE VANS CARRY WAR DOCUMENTS

Ink is Valuable Fluid Now at Bordeaux Where French Government is Established.

Bordeaux, via Paris, Sept. 7.—The work of effecting an adequate organization of the French government in Bordeaux is proceeding unremittingly. Governmental documents are arriving from Paris by the van load. Several vans came in this morning and were drawn up in front of the new war office. It was noted with interest by the crowd that they bore the names of firms engaged in the moving business in Colmar and Muelhausen, Alsace Lorraine. The vans had been captured by the French in the early stages of the war and sent to Paris. Most of the offices are equipped in an exceedingly scant manner. One leading official in the foreign office, after many exertions, succeeded in obtaining a kitchen table, two plain chairs and a pen and pencil. There is little ink and the fluid is regarded in official circles as almost priceless. The foreign embassies are lodged in mansions provided for them by the French government in various quarters of the city. The embassies still remaining in Paris are represented here by secretaries of embassies.

Bomb Dropping in Kiau Chau Territory Answered by Shots From Germans.

Tokio, Sept. 6.—The Japanese naval commander reports that two sea plane dirigibles reconnoitred Tsing Tau in the German territory of Kiau Chau yesterday and dropped bombs on the wireless barracks. One of the sea planes received 15 shots in its planes, but both returned safely.

HEAVY GUNS SENT TO REINFORCE CAPITAL

London, Sept. 7.—The correspondent of the Daily News in Paris, in a dispatch under Saturday's date says he understands heavy guns from Calais, Boulogne and Cherbourg have been brought up to reinforce the defences of Paris.

Twenty-five thousand marine fusiliers, he states, marched through the city early yesterday.

PROHIBIT LIQUOR SALES

London, Sept. 7.—The sale of liquors has been prohibited for the duration of the war, according to a Petrograd dispatch to the Reuter Telegram Company.

JAPANESE WAR VOTE

Tokio, Sept. 7.—The house of representatives to-day unanimously passed a war vote of 53,000,000 yen (about $26,500,000).

MISSING VERSES. To the Editor:—Some years ago I came across the following lines, which were said to form the first verse of a Latin hymn:

THE FLEET ON GUARD. S. Morgan Powell. Fog off the Dogger, and the heavy swell rolls in the impatient wrath, yet impatient to halt the low, lean greyhounds of the sea.

From the incessant watch. Through the dark mist That clings around them and about, they loom

Long, slim and phantom-like, their piercing eyes Gleaming in tenuous shafts of silver light

This way and that they turn unceasingly, striving to penetrate the swirling gloom That wraps them in its close and chilly fold.

Throughout the watches of the night they ride The heaving swell—alive, alert, prepared; Nor e'er their guard relax—for with them rests The fate of Britain's millions, wrapt in sleep.

TWO GREAT BATTLES.

Two colossal battles are raging in the western and eastern theatres of war. In France the whole line of the allies from Nanteuil-le-Haudouin, a point thirty miles northeast of Paris, to the vicinity of Verdun, two hundred miles further east, is engaged with the four German armies converging in the direction of the capital. It is not improbable that in this conflict the allies are acting on the offensive. The official reports of decisive advantages by the French in Lorraine indicate that the defenders have been engaged in a turning movement of their own on the German left and the dispatches received yesterday suggested that the operation had been successful. A manoeuvre of this character would be followed by a general assault on the part of the British and French along the whole line, which, if crowned with victory, would practically ruin the German army of invasion.

In the east the Russian host is battling with the second Austrian army, reinforced by the Germans, in Russian Poland. After defeating the third Austrian army and occupying Lemberg, the Russians swept onward, a portion moving northwest towards Lublin to catch on the flank the Austrian forces engaged with the main Russian army, and a part westward to the fortified position of Przemysl, where the remnants of the defeated Austrian third army had taken refuge. This place is reported as being surrounded by the Russians and its capture is inevitable. Its loss to the Austrians will mean the end of Francis Joseph's authority in Galicia.

Upon the battles now in progress in France and Poland may rest the determination of the duration of the war. If the allies are victorious in the west, the flower of the German army will have been so badly shattered as to render it incapable of any further aggressive action, or any serious resistance at all for that matter. If the Russians are successful in the east, the road to Berlin will be open for a forward movement free of any embarrassments on their flank. If the Germans win, the world will have to settle down to the prospect of a struggle lasting several years.

DAMNED BY A PHRASE.

The New York World makes a stinging reference to the German chancellor's description of the treaty guaranteeing the neutrality of Belgium as “merely a scrap of paper,” over which it was not worth while for Great Britain to wage war. The World points out that Magna Charta was merely a scrap of paper; so were the Bill of Rights, the Declaration of Independence and the United States constitution. The Hay-Pauncefote treaty, in pursuance of which President Wilson won a magnificent moral victory, also was merely a scrap of paper. Upon such scraps of paper has democracy achieved its progress, and they will be cherished by the world when vicious Prussianism is forgotten. That phrase of the German chancellor, betraying a cold-blooded disregard of the elementary principles of national honor, will follow the Potsdam bureaucracy to its grave.

TO-DAY'S SUMMARY.

A news dispatch from Berlin reports that a battle is being fought on the French centre from Rethel to Verdun with the opposing forces on almost even terms. Reports from other sources, while falling to reveal the purpose of the German strategy in removing a great force to the southeast of Paris, indicate a determination to deal the allies a crushing blow before the complete investment of the French capital is attempted. German pressure on the left wing of the allies has been maintained, and apparently the main strength of the invaders has been thrown against the enemy's centre and right. It is officially announced in Paris that a general engagement is being fought east of that city to-day, and that the Germans have begun to retire at that point.

Official reports from Petrograd state that the Russian troops are gradually closing in on the strong fortress of Przemysl, fifty miles west of Lemberg, and that this last remaining stronghold of the Austrians in Galicia will soon surrender or be taken by assault.

It is stated officially at Antwerp that the Belgians have repulsed a German attack against that city.

According to a news dispatch from Rome, members of the Italian Socialist reform party have formally declared for Italian neutrality.

THE ANTIQUE—UP-TO-DATE. London Globe.

She gazed at the tall old clock on the stair, “'Twas a relic of days long fled; A costly timepiece, a treasure rare, But lately purchased and placed up there, ‘A quaint old gem!’ she said.

“Did you stand in some old manor hall, Where the firelight flickered red On polished floor and on carved wall, Where fell the shadows of ladies tall And straightly stiff?” she said.

“Did you look, perchance, on a winsome maid— Alas, a century dead, Softly demure and sweetly staid, In a tortoise-shell comb and a gay brocade With a very short waist?” she said.

“Did you see her lover, a comely swain, A-bending his stately head To touch her lips and to touch again, Till her fair cheek warmed with a crimson stain?” she said.

“Ah, the wondrous pictures seen by you In the days so long since fled! But the tall old clock fetched a grin to view: ‘I wonder what she would say if she knew I was made last week?’” it said.

BEST PEOPLE; THE DOCTORS. Life.

Before there was history there were doctors, and always there have been treacherous men who have made game of them and doubted the efficacy of their treatments. Moreover, the scoffers have always had abundant reason on their side, for doctoring has always been, and still is, an experiment, and the history of medicine is a record of treatments and medicines discarded because they were found to be worthless, and superseded by other treatments and medicines most of which went to the ash-heap in their due turn.

Doctors have been so habitually mistaken, have confided so steadily in means and theories that have turned out to be wrong, that it is a wonder that mankind has continued to confide in them, and that they have managed, themselves, to retain any confidence in their competency for their employment. But we do confide in them, not because we believe them to be infallible, but because we think they know more about health, disease and the human body than we do.

AS WAS INTENDED. Chicago Post.

Back to the Land Movement.—The scheme of leasing and cultivating vacant lots in and around Victoria is excellent and should commend itself to everyone. There are many, however, who would prefer to lease a few acres with an option to purchase when convenient and so build up a permanent home in the country. You can select what you want from thousands of acres in the vicinity of Parksville and on the E. & N. railway extension to Courtenay. For full information apply to Vancouver Island Fruit Lands, Limited, general agents, Carmichael & Moorhead, Ltd., 608 Belmont House, Victoria, B. C.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TO-DAY

Victoria Times, September 7, 1889.

George Taylor, M. P., and Mrs. Taylor, of Gananoque, Ont., arrived from the east last night and are at the Diarrid hotel.

The tower of St. Andrew's church is assuming massive and beautiful proportions. A circular space is left for a clock dial. Would it not be an excellent idea for a clock with mechanical chimes to be erected in this tower?

R. L. Fraser has resigned the position of teacher of the South Saanich school and has been succeeded by G. H. Sluggett, formerly of the West Saanich school. Mr. Fraser was a most capable teacher. H. J. Rossiter, B. A., has given up charge of the North Saanich school and will leave in a few days for the East, where the two former teachers will enter college to study medicine.

The seal donated by E. Shields to the Beacon Hill park zoo took a leap for liberty last night from the deck of the Viva and escaped.

RIVAL ROTARIANS MEET ON DIAMOND

Baseball Match Between Victoria and Vancouver Clubs Impired by Lady

The score or more of automobiles which assembled at the C. P. R. dock at 3 o'clock this afternoon were there for the purpose of welcoming the 30 members of the Vancouver Rotary club, who with their wives came over to pay a fraternal visit to the Rotary club of this city. The Victoria club gave a demonstrative welcome, and after gathering the visitors into their numerous motor cars conveyed them up to the Royal Athletic park, where at 4 o'clock the big interclub baseball game was scheduled to take place.

The dull weather did not in any appreciable degree occasion a waning of the enthusiasm with which the two clubs have prepared for the clash, but the attendance was slightly affected unfortunately. The ladies of the Household League and the Daughters of the Empire, who are to share the gate receipts, attended in force with refreshments to be served to players and spectators.

The Vancouver players went on the field dressed in the road uniforms of the Vancouver professional baseball club, while the Victoria team wore the home uniforms of the Victoria professionals, which with the grounds were placed at the disposal of the Rotary clubs, by Rotarian Joshua Kingham. The game began promptly on the arrival of Miss Verna Felton, the charming leading lady of the Allen Players, who had consented to act in the capacity of umpire.

After the game the Victoria club will entertain the visitors to a theatre party at the Pantages theatre, followed by supper at the Westholme grill. The visitors will give a musical entertainment at the supper party.

Noted Athlete Enlists.—C. B. Kennedy, the well-known oarsman, lacrosse and rugby player, has returned from California to enlist in the Fifth regiment. He went into camp yesterday. He gained fame as an athlete when he was stroke of the J. B. A. A. four which held the championship for several years.

Weather Outlook Dull.—The dull weather which is having a tendency to mar the pleasantness of the holiday spread in from the ocean according to F. Napier Denison, the meteorological expert at Gonzales Hill. Owing to the absence of reports from Triangle island during the war, it is difficult to anticipate action from this quarter at the present time. The rainfall has been fairly heavy all along the coast from California to Alaska and the outlook is not encouraging. There has been a sharp frost in Manitoba this morning.

SHOW BRITISH ARMY IN SILENT DRAMA

Interesting and Instructive Pictures on Exhibition at the Dominion

Cavalry galloping madly down a steep hill with heavy artillery following in quick succession, the horses straining every muscle; infantry attacking a fort as seen from an aeroplane, skirmishing on hillsides, Maxim guns—quick firers and thirteen-pounders all in action are depicted in realistic likeness in motion pictures of the British army at the Dominion theatre this week.

The British army in all its phases is shown. The whole period from the time a recruit is taken in hand by a recruiting officer in the streets of London until he is in the thick of the battle with an enemy, is portrayed by one of the most skillfully connected moving picture subjects that has ever been thrown on a local screen.

In one of the scenes taken from a scouting aeroplane, the men in the infantry regiments look like so many ants crawling up a hillside as they attack the huge walls of a fort. The heavy field artillery is shown as effectively as if the camera man had been at Liege and Namur.

Acetylene welding in the workshops, aiming drill, soldiers at play, field telegraph station, target practice with Maxims, the army airship "Beta" in mid air, reservists joining their regiments, officers making a reconnaissance are only a few of the interesting parts of the series.

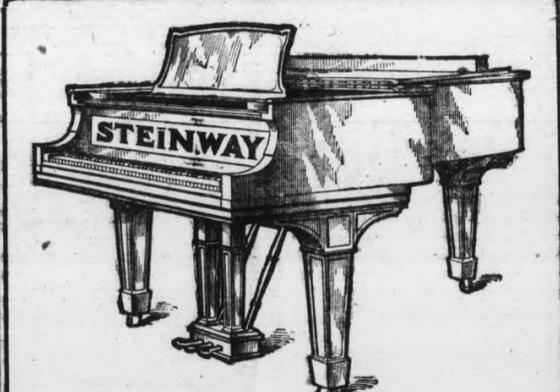

To show all departments of the army in active service, part of the series is given to a sham battle, in which the engineers, signallers, ambulance squad, army service corps, infantry, artillery, cavalry and airships all figure prominently.

With the country in Belgium and France very similar to that in parts of England the pictures give an excellent idea of how the present war is being waged.

In the weekly gazettes a regiment of Belgian artillery passes before the camera. The Belgian Lancers also are shown on parade in Brussels just before leaving for Liege. A German sailing ship is shown being towed into an English port.

When the regiments of gallant Belgium passed by, the enthusiasm of the audience knew no bounds. The daring rushes of the cavalry and the excellent manoeuvres of the heavy artillery were also loudly applauded.

The martial music was all played on the pipe organ which lent itself admirably to these interesting and instructive pictures, which are masterpieces of motion camera art.

Afternoon Dresses That Are Rich in Charm

It is a real pleasure to show the afternoon gowns we have just received and which will be on display next week. They immediately enlist the interest and enthusiasm of all who see them, and they are priced well within bounds.

One of these gowns, for example, is a ripple crepe in a shade of flame; made with long Russian tunic, set-in sleeve, wide collar of Roman stripe, girde of same material, which is also used to pipe arms and cuffs—$30.00

Another gown is a French grey in messaline silk. It has a tunic effect and fastens in front, the trimming of buttons of moire ribbon being set off with loops of the same. A wide shirred girde with a large bow at the front is of material to tone; triangular collar of figured moire; collar and cuffs lace-trimmed; shoulders finished with short straps and moire buttons—$25.00.

SCRAP BOOK

War and Business Depression Put Damper on Labor Day.

Labor Day, the holiday of American workmen, will not be celebrated quite so generally as usual to-day, not because of any diminution in the fervor of the organized workers, but for the reason that war and industrial and business depression have made spectacular demonstrations seem unwise. In nearly all trades many men have been out of employment for some time, and the union leaders consider that the money previously spent on parades and other manifestations of the solidarity of labor should be used for the relief of the unemployed. For the first time in the history of the holiday, New York city will have no Labor Day parade to-day and the example of the American metropolis will be followed in many other cities.

In curtailing the customary Labor Day festivities, however, the heads of labor organizations are not afflicted with any spirit of pessimism. In the opinion of most of the labor officials, the North American continent will soon rebound to the hum of industry, and factories and mills which have been closed down will soon be working overtime. Various reasons are assigned for this optimistic and rosy view of the future, but there is a general belief that the disordered state of affairs in Europe will make it necessary for Canada, the United States and South America to feed and clothe and provide the necessities of life for a large part of the world. While a few industries which depend upon Europe for raw material and supplies will be seriously affected, there appears to be an almost universal faith among union leaders that a wave of prosperity will soon sweep over the whole North American continent.

TO-DAY IN CANADIAN HISTORY

The Earl of Dalhousie, the best-loved of Nova Scotian executives and the best-hated of the governors of Canada, retired from the latter position eighty-six years ago to-day, September 7, 1828. He arrived in Quebec as governor-general in 1820, the same year in which Papineau became speaker of the assembly. In Nova Scotia Lord Dalhousie founded the Halifax college bearing his name, and the encouragement he gave to education, agriculture and industry, as well as his kindly personality, made him extremely popular. In Lower Canada he took part in many public works, founded an agricultural association and the Quebec Literary and Historical association, encouraged agriculture and education, and sought to gain the confidence of French as well as English by entertaining the leaders of both nationalities and by erecting in Quebec, principally at his own expense, a monument to the joint honor of Wolfe and Montcalm. Papineau would have none of him, however, and almost from the first the earl realized that it was to be war to the hilt with the brilliant Frenchman. He lost his first battle when the assembly refused to act on his request that permanent officials of the crown be taken out of the political arena. Papineau inspired a continuous agitation against the governor-general and at last Dalhousie refused to accept him when he was re-elected speaker. In 1828, after many mass meetings and the sending of numerous petitions to the British parliament, the latter body appointed a commission for inquiry. The report of the commission was a defeat for Lord Dalhousie on most points, and he resigned his post. He was succeeded by Sir James Kempt, but his mission of conciliation was a failure, as was that of Lord Aylmer.

is afflicted with a mania to steal, but she is ignorant of the fact that her future husband is also.

Into this a real thief is smuggled by a new maid and the plot thus tangled in the first act calls for a battalion of policemen who appear in the second act, where the thrills begin. One valuable after another disappears in the most mysterious manner and in the search for the culprits many funny situations are evolved.

"EARL OF PAWTUCKET."

Lawrence D'Orsay and his company are to appear at the Royal Victoria theatre on Wednesday, September 9, in the tantalizing comedy in three acts, "The Earl of Pawtucket." The piece is not a production abounding in impossible situations and absurd sensationalism, neither is it a conglomeration of farce and specialties—but it is a rational, clever, clean and entertaining comedy for intelligent people, presented by a company of experienced actors and actresses. It is thoroughly enjoyed by those who wish to see artistic acting and a picture true to life.

The fame of Mr. D'Orsay in this piece is a matter of record. He has reached the zenith of his capacities in the part that he has made so noted.

AT THE THEATRES

"STOP THIEF."

"Stop Thief," which will be presented by the Allen Players at the Princess theatre this week, is a farce in three acts. The plot of the piece deals with kleptomania.

A kleptomaniac is defined by Webster as a wealthy person of extraordinary absentminded tendencies and morbid impulses. The mania usually demonstrates its presence through the victim of it being discovered in making a collection of valuable articles that do not belong to him. When a poor man is caught doing the same thing he is arrested as an ordinary thief. That is a detail however.

There are two kleptomaniacs and a real crook in "Stop Thief." One of the kleptomaniacs is a millionaire and the other is his prospective son-in-law. The bride-to-be knows that her father

In form "The Candy Shop" is a great deal on the order of musical comedy revues such as Ziegfeld's "Follies" and the New York Winter Garden shows. It races along at break-neck speed, typical of the most modern Broadway musical offerings, but even at this top pace it is difficult to crowd into the

FIRST THINGS

The first step toward the independence of Brazil was taken ninety-two years ago to-day, Sept. 7, 1822, when Dom Pedro, son of King John of Portugal and regent of Brazil, declared the country's separation from the mother country. The Portuguese government made no attempt to retain its South American dependency, and in October, 1822, Dom Pedro was formally crowned Emperor of Brazil. In 1831 Emperor Dom Pedro abdicated in favor of his infant son, and the empire was governed by a regency until 1840, when the youthful emperor was crowned as Dom Pedro II. His reign continued until a quarter of a century ago, when, by a bloodless revolution, the emperor abdicated, and the republic of the United States of Brazil was launched. Marshal Deodoro da Fonseca was the first president of Brazil. He was succeeded in turn by Floriano Peixoto, Dr. Prudente de Moraes Barros, Dr. Campos Sales, Dr. Rodrigues Alves, Alfonso Penna, Dr. Nilo Pecanha and Marshal Hermes da Fonseca. During the republican regime there have been several local revolutions, but on the whole Brazil has been peaceful and prosperous, and has developed the coffee industry to a point where it supplies nearly nine-tenths of all the coffee consumed in the world.

Superior Values in New Fall Suits

$15.00 A pretty range of Suits, made of fine boucle cloth, in saxe and black, grey, and purple and black mixtures. They are made in plain tailored style, with half length cutaway coat, fully lined with good wearing quality satin.

$25.00 A Suit of exceptional value is made in a severely tailored manner. Material is navy serge, with lining of blue satin. It is made with a basque coat, fastening in front with nine oval buttons. The skirt is made with a long, full tunic over a narrow skirt.

$37.50 A smart Fall Suit of blue, green twill serge. The coat is short basque in front, cut away to a full skirt effect at the back. The skirt is made in double tunic style. Exceptional value.

$19.75 At this price we have a suit that embodies all that is smart, neat and up-to-date. The material is brown check. Coat is long cutaway style. The skirt is made with long tunic cut away from the front. A double box pleat runs down the centre in front, giving a tone of distinction to the suit.

$18.75 A Suit made in the same style as above, but the material in this case is a good quality indigo blue serge.

$35.00 The coat of this Suit is made of navy serge, collar and cuffs of Roman stripe material. Four box pleats at the back give a full effect. It is made to fasten close to the neck and is trimmed with a large number of small fancy buttons. The skirt is made with a long tunic over a skirt of Roman stripe woolen fabric and is trimmed down the front with small oval buttons placed close together.

Remarkable Values in Fall Coats

$11.75 At this small price you can buy here a coat that is pretty, smart and serviceable. It is cut after the style of a sports coat, but is made of heavier material throughout. An extra fine quality of blanket coating is used, in colors of either white, Mexique pink, or ocean blue. It is made in Norfolk style.

$12.75 Is the price of this smart, distinctive looking coat. It is made with a short cape, a novelty that will have much prominence this season. The collar is made after military pattern and fastens close to the throat. A belt effect at the back sets off this coat to good advantage.

$11.50 An excellent moderately priced Coat is made of blanket coating in either grey or brown mixture. It is made with broad collar, and cuffs of same material; trimmed with heavy buttons. The body is made with full skirt effect.

$12.75 A pretty Coat of Labrador blue rep material that has a grey nap. It is made in long cutaway style with diagonal side pockets, velvet collar, and full skirt effect.

$15.00 This Coat is certainly one of our finest values. It is made of a burnt orange and brown check blanket cloth. The full skirt effect is very noticeable. Sleeves are Raglan style, with turn-back cuffs. Trimmings include velvet collar and novelty buttons. This is a very pretty and smart looking Coat.

NAVAL VOLUNTEERS
OBTAIN DISCHARGE

Work Too Hard For Untrained Men; Many Join 88th Regiment

Scrapping the bottom of H. M. S. Newcastle while in drydock and stoking H. M. C. S. Rainbow on her cruise to California proved too strenuous for a large number of the naval volunteers, especially men who had not been accustomed to manual work, and at their request they have been granted a discharge from active duties.

About 20 of the discharged men promptly enlisted in the 88th regiment as an earnest of their willingness to serve their country up to the limit of their physical capacities. The rest, it was announced by the senior naval officer this morning, will meet for the regular weekly drills, but will not be kept in camp. The senior naval officer stated that the men were all discharged at their own request, not because they were not needed.

The scarcity of uniforms for the new recruits who are coming into the 88th regiment so rapidly has caused the commanding officer to place an order with a local tailor for a big batch of plain khaki tunics and trousers, in order that the men may present some semblance of uniformity.

Another effort to give the soldiers a martial appearance has been the encouragement of the growing of moustaches. Any militiamen with the faintest prospect of sprouting a moustache has been leaving his upper lip unshaved for the past few weeks, and in many cases excellent progress is being made.

No special recognition of the holiday is being made by the encamped soldiers. Leave has been given at the Willows in order that the men may attend the motor sports, and a large number have been given leave to go down town from the other regiments. The 5th regiment has closed its recruiting station, having now enlisted enough men to use up all the uniforms in the district, about 20 more than the regiment's established strength. The 88th office at Fort and Langley streets, and the 50th office at 1205 Broad street are still open.

LOCAL NEWS

Cannot Visit Alberni.—Fire Chief Davis announced this morning that he will be unable to leave for Alberni tomorrow in connection with the proposed federation of the volunteer fire departments of Vancouver Island and the contests the following day (Wednesday), on account of business pressure.

Calls of Fire.—The fire department, which had responded to an unnecessary alarm on Saturday evening through some one being alarmed at smoke issuing from a boat at James Bay, was called out yesterday to control a small fire at the Woodworkers' Ltd. premises, Douglas street. The firemen restricted the damage to a small loss.

Preparing New By-Law.—In the course of a few days now the by-law to regulate the examination of operators of moving pictures will be ready for introduction to the city council. It will set up an examining board composed of the city electrician, the fire chief and a third examiner selected by the other two, to whom the operators must give proof of capacity.

Polling Places Fixed.—The polling places in the vote on the by-laws for Saanich, to be voted upon by the ratepayers on Saturday week, are as follows: Ward I, New school, Cedar Hill road; Ward II, Tolmie school; Ward III, Gordon Head hall; Ward IV, Mackenzie avenue schoolhouse; Ward V, Royal Oak school; Ward VI, Temperance hall, East Saanich road; Ward VII, vacant store, corner of Gorge and Tillicum roads.

Life-Saving Awards.—Saturday afternoon at the Gorge L. K. Godfrey was examined for the proficiency certificate and bronze medallion and Mrs. R. W. Hiberson for the award of merit, the former passing with 82 per cent and the latter 88 per cent. P. R. Pomfret examined for the centre. The entries for the "Desborough" and "Benwell" cups in life saving will close October 15, the new conditions decided on at last meeting being forwarded to the various affiliated clubs. All particulars can be obtained from the hon. secy., W. Meed, 664 Dallas road.

Margaret Jenkins School.—Good progress is being made with the Margaret Jenkins school at Hollywood, and while the situation is low and almost enclosed in trees, the building when completed will have an attractive prospect from Fairfield road. The brick work is well advanced and the contractors, Luney Brothers, have proceeded sufficiently with the building for its ultimate appearance to be gauged. The building is to be finished by the end of the year for occupation. It is now the only school under construction for the city school board. Spurgin & Wilkins are the architects.

Macaulay Point Tunnel.—The tunnel at Macaulay point for the Northwest sewer, which was pierced successfully on Friday after over five months' work, is the first of four to be completed on this project. A second, that at Gore street, will be finished in about six or seven weeks, as there is only another 180 feet to complete. The other tunnels will not be finished this year. There is about 450 feet of the 1800 feet in the Sunnyside tunnel pierced. The other long tunnel, 2,700 feet, will not be through till the new year. The tunnel between Thomas and Robert streets, which is now opened, will be cleaned up and finished shortly, so that the sewer pipe may be laid through it.

License Commissioners.—The board of license commissioners will hold its quarterly meeting on Wednesday, when several applications for transfers of licenses will come before the board.

CANADIAN EXPLORER
IS MAROONED ON ICE

Vilhjalmar Stefansson, Although Not in Immediate Danger, is Isolated

Winnipeg, Sept. 7.—Vilhjalmar Stefansson, the Canadian explorer, is marooned on the ice off Herschel Island, according to Rev. W. H. Fry, a missionary, who has been among the Eskimos and who arrived here to-day from Klittgagjeit. Stefansson is in no immediate danger. Dr. Fry based his assertion on a letter from an Eskimo on June 8, the day he started south.

The Eskimo wrote that he knew Stefansson had left Herschel Island and had gone out on the ice with two of his men, Anderson (not Anderson, his lieutenant) and Storkinson. The ice broke up suddenly, the water opened up a few days later and the explorer and his companions were unable to get off. The Eskimo said he had been told by native whalers, who had helped Stefansson on the ice, that the party had ammunition and food sufficient to last all winter.

The last definite word of Stefansson was brought to Nome, Alaska, September 1, by a schooner from Point Barrow. The captain of the schooner reported that after making an attempt to cross the ice, Stefansson and two companions had returned to Mastin Point, east of the mouth of the Barter river, on April 16. The crew of Stefansson's ship Karluk, which was crushed in the ice north of Herald Island, is believed to be marooned on Wrangell Island. There are twenty-two men in this party. The United States revenue cutter Bear sailed for Wrangell Island on September 5 in an attempt to rescue them.

OVER-TIME CONTEST WON BY VICTORIA

Cyril Baker's thrilling goal after eight minutes' overtime play won for Victoria this morning over Westminster, the final score being 7 to 6. The Victoria club finish up the season with a victory, after having been beaten at Vancouver on Saturday, only to give a clean cut demonstration of the come-back this morning on a slippery field. The Westminster club showed plenty of speed in the field, but the Victoria club were much stronger on the defense, and with Medridge performing in brilliant style in the nets, the locals won in extra time. Cyril Baker and Clarence McCarter starred on the attack, the former getting four goals, while McCarter registered three.

The Victoria club was greatly strengthened, Sweeney, Cotton and Joe Mitchell being in uniform. Boss Johnson handled the game in finished style, few penalties being handed out. The Victoria team lined up as follows: Medridge, Clegg, Sweeney, Cotton, O'Neil, Taylor, Johnson, J. Baker, C. Baker, McCarter, Petticrew, J. Mitchell.

"I have never believed," said he, opening his coat the better to display the details of the suit, "in paying fancy prices for cut-to-measure garments. Now, here is a suit for which I paid eight dollars and ninety-eight cents. Appearance are very deceptive. If I told you I purchased it for thirty-five dollars, you'd undoubtedly believe that to be the truth." His friend viewed the suit critically for a moment as he replied: "I would if you told me over the telephone."

BEES TAKE DOUBLE HEADER AT SPOKANE

Narveson and Smith Winners Over Indians, Seattle and Vancouver in Close Finish

Victoria took the lead in their series with Spokane by twice trouncing the Indians yesterday—the first game 1-0 and the second contest 9-2. The opening game was the "prettiest pitchers' duel of the year, Narveson holding the Indians to three hits, while Victoria collected but four off Covalesskie.

Veteran Harry Rush, a good boxman around 1908, tried to stop the Bees in the second encounter, but was batted to all corners of the field.

FREIGHT STEAMERS BERTH ON HOLIDAY

Crown of Seville and Teucer Discharge Large Cargoes; Movement of Shipping

The holiday was broken for a considerable number of steamship agents and waterfront workers by the arrival of the Harrison direct liner Crown of Seville, and the Holt liner Teucer.

The Crown of Seville has been delayed, as Capt. Smith had to call at Portland, after a fast trip to San Francisco from Glasgow. One of the last of the Harrison boats to come round the straits of Magellan prior to the transfer of route to the Panama canal, she has about 350 to 400 tons for this port. Captain Smith has already reported excellent weather during the journey, except four days after passing through the straits of the Chilean coast.

As usual with the Harrison boats, she picked up a cargo of coffee at Santos, Brazil, some of which was consigned to San Francisco. At Vancouver and sound ports she will take on a general cargo, before leaving for San Francisco, loading for Portland having been withdrawn late last week.

The liner made the run round the South American coast without any interference from foreign warships. She took up her berth at the outer wharf shortly before 3 o'clock to-day.

The Blue Funnel freighter Teucer on her arrival late this afternoon showed the continued popularity of this line with the Orientals, having to debar 347 for this port. She had about 160 tons of cargo to discharge here before proceeding to Vancouver and Sound ports. Other shipments include 2,772 tons of freight for Vancouver, 4,590 tons for Seattle and Tacoma and approximately 1,000 tons for overland shipment. She also brought 250 bales of silk.

It is announced by Dodwell & Co. that the Teucer, which is running seven days behind her regular schedule as the result of being delayed by the Japanese quarantine regulations, will be discharged and reloaded in time to sail on schedule for the home-ward voyage to the United Kingdom.

The Aki Maru, of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha fleet, will berth Wednesday, with over 1,000 tons for this port, and 38 passengers.

Farrrows, Ltd., has secured the contract for the repair of the Princess Victoria, damaged in the recent collision with the Admiral Sampson. Sixteen bow plates and a section of the stem will have to be renewed.

Yesterday the Tallac, American steam schooner, called to discharge freight at the inner harbor, en route to Vancouver with sulphur ore for Barnet.

Saturdays calls for pilots included the English monarch, from the River Plate, to bunkers at Nanaimo; the British steamer Queen Helena, from San Diego to load creosoted ties for the Indian railways at Vancouver; the British oil tanker Trinco, from Port San Luis with oil for the Canadian Pacific railway, and the oil tanker Oberon southbound to Port San Luis.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH CORNER STONES LAID

Large Congregation Attends Interesting Proceedings; Hon. Dr. Young Gives Address

Great interest centered in the cornerstone laying of the new First Presbyterian church, corner of Quadra and Fisgard streets, which took place at 10.30 this morning. The portion of the building at present used for services was crowded to capacity with people of all denominations, a few of whom could recall the laying of the foundation stone of the original First Presbyterian church opened in 1863.

Representatives of the Presbyterian church in Victoria were present as follows: Rev. J. G. Inkster, the present pastor of the First church, being in the pulpit; Rev. A. Raeburn Gibson, assistant pastor; Rev. Mr. Fortune, Rev. Dr. Clay, Venerable Dr. John Reid, and Rev. Joseph McCoy. Other ministers present included Rev. Dr. C. T. Scott, pastor of the Metropolitan Methodist church; Rev. D. W. Ganton; Rev. Hermon Carson, of the First Congregational church; Rev. J. H. S. Sweet, of St. James church; Rev. T. W. Gladstone, of the Reformed Episcopal church, and Rev. J. B. Wainwright, of the First Baptist church.

Services were held in the auditorium, Rev. Mr. Inkster giving a brief resume of the history of the First Presbyterian church of Vancouver island, which was founded by Rev. John Hall, of the colonial committee of the Presbyterian church of Ireland, in 1861, and the church built and opened in 1863.

After the reading of the directions and the benediction the congregation and invited guests passed out to the southeast corner of the new church foundations, where the Hon. Dr. H. E. Young, who was presented with a silver trowel for the purpose by George McGregor, placed the mortar and pronounced the corner stone, truly laid, Mr. Inkster giving a report of the contents of the box enclosed in the stone, this containing the coins, newspapers and various church documents and books of the period.

After the ceremony of laying the corner stone of the new church, Alexander Wilson, who originally performed the ceremony in connection with the former church, re-laid the old corner stone, with its enclosed box, the contents of which, enumerated by Mr. Inkster, consisted of the current coins of the realm, periodicals and newspapers of the date, etc., Mrs. Flett, one of the oldest members of the congregation, presenting the trowel to Mr. Wilson as he declared the stone well and truly laid.

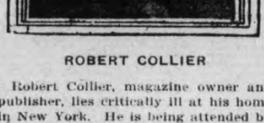

A short address by Mr. Wilson, who narrated how the congregation had risen from a membership of fifty to nine hundred during the fifty years which had elapsed since the foundation of the church, thanked those present for their interest, and expressed the hope that the church would move along in line with other good things in the city.

A tribute to the helpful part played by Mrs. Flett in the life of the church concluded his remarks.

Hon. Dr. Young, who, a Presbyterian and a son of a Presbyterian, had been especially invited to address the congregation, said that he felt it a signal honor to be asked to speak on such an occasion, and referred to the peculiar interest of the history of the church as he had just heard it. Great credit redounded to those who had built up the congregation and lent their aid to the uplift of the material and spiritual life of the church.

After a special word of thanks by Mr. Inkster to all present and especially to the Hon. Dr. Young, Mr. Wilson, Mr. McGregor, Mrs. Flett and venerable Dr. Reid, the proceedings concluded with the pronouncing of the benediction by the last-named.

PASSENGER STEAMER BLOWN UP BY MINE

Six Hundred on Board, All Saved But Twenty-seven Persons

THREE HUNDRED ARE LANDED BY TRAWLERS

Work of Rescuers Among Finest Episodes in History of the Sea

London, Sept. 6.—A Central News dispatch from Hull says that the Wilson liner Runo struck a mine in the North Sea and was sunk. The steamer left Hull yesterday with 600 passengers, including a large number of Russian immigrants.

Grimsby, Eng., Sept. 7.—Nearly 300 persons rescued from the Wilson liner Runo by trawlers when the steamer sank Saturday in the North Sea, after striking a mine were landed Sunday at Grimsby and Hull. The prompt work of four trawlers saved the lives of nearly all on board.

Wilson line officials say that all of the crew and all but twenty-seven of the passengers are safe in this port. The Runo was bound from Hull on the long trip across the North-Sea to Archangel and her passengers were mostly Russians from America returning to Russia with their women and children. The explosion was terrific, and a large portion of the ship was scattered while several passengers were injured and one was killed.

The Runo, after settling by the head somewhat, remained in that position nearly two hours, her bulkheads holding her aft until the bulkheads suddenly gave way, elevating her stern high in the air for a moment, after which she slipped quietly into the depths.

Many survivors, injured by flying debris, were taken in ambulances on arrival here. It is believed all will recover. The work of the trawlers is declared by the Runo's crew to have been one of the finest episodes of its kind in the history of the sea. The trawler Silanton was the first on the scene. The Runo's people were forward, and the Silanton had difficulty in getting near on account of the peculiar upsurges generally understood little English the orders to them were not understood, and this accounts partially for the panic and for the failure to get off more lifeboats. One of the stewards said he rushed into the steerage after the explosion and saw that it was wrecked and splintered. He noticed that some of the passengers were badly injured.

Two Million Germans Have Moved to Front

Reinforcements Still Being Sent Forward to Meet Armies of the Allies.

London, Sept. 7.—2.50 p. m.—A dispatch to the Evening Star from Rotterdam says that during the first thirteen days of the war more than 2,500,000 troops for the western theatre of the war passed over the five bridges over the Rhine at Cologne.

Notwithstanding this enormous army, reinforcements are still being hurried to the front, not only to take the place of the huge number killed and wounded, but in order to carry out the German plan that so far as possible fresh troops be hurled at men who already have borne the burden of the day.

In addition to the tremendous siege guns of the Germans, ordinary field pieces have been hurried forward. An American who has just arrived from Cologne, continues the Star's correspondent, states that he met a wounded German officer who told him that the success of the Germans was due entirely to the fact that the troops always had a rest after an engagement. The army corps were being used in shifts to keep them fresh.

CORRESPONDENT SAFE.

Chicago, Sept. 7.—Maurice Gerbult, correspondent for the Chicago Daily News at Brussels, Belgium, reported to have disappeared in the war zone of Belgium and for whose safety grave fears were felt, is alive and safe, according to a cablegram received to-day by the Daily News.

TRUE PATRIOTISM

Many families may suffer on account of the 'breadwinners' having left for the front to defend the old flag. Many more will suffer on account of the increased cost of living. Merchants should prove their patriotism by keeping prices as low as possible.

ALLIED ARMY FORCES GERMANS TO RETIRE

Austrian Army Corps Between Vistula and Bug is Retreating

Paris, Sept. 7.—From official communications given out in Paris to-day it is learned that the engagements which began Saturday and Sunday to the east and northeast of the French capital developed to-day into one of the most important battles of the campaign.

The armies of the allies are opposing the German advance over a front extending for about 120 miles from Nanteuil le Hardouin, twenty-five miles northeast of Paris, to the great fortress of Verdun, in the department of Meuse and twenty miles west of the German frontier. The French troops were strongly supported by British troops who passed through Paris several days ago.

The position chosen by the allies to give battle to the advancing invaders is declared to be most favorable, having near its centre the strongly entrenched camp at Chalons Sur Marne. The allies conducted their operations so successfully that a portion of the German forces were forced to retire. The Germans had reached the region around Coulommiers and La Ferté Gaucher, respectively, thirty and forty miles to the east of Paris, when the detachments covering the flanks of the main German army encountered advanced detachments of the allies, who drove them back.

The wounded began coming into Paris this afternoon. It is estimated unofficially that nearly 1,000,000 troops are engaged in the fighting.

Lieut.-Col. Rousset, military critic of La Liberté, said to-day that the German armies had placed themselves in a position to the east and northeast of Paris, which might become hopeless in case they suffered a check. Petrograd, Sept. 7.—The following announcement was given out to-day: "The Austrian army corps between the river Vistula and the river Bug are retreating with enormous losses. The resistance of the enemy has been broken. "There are evidences of the possibility of a famine in Austria."

A dispatch from Bucharest, coming by way of Odessa, announces the entry of Russian troops into Czernowitz. An earlier dispatch from London reported that the Russians had entered Czernowitz unopposed. The city is the capital of Bukovina, Austria-Hungary, and is 146 miles southeast of Lemberg.

Paris, Sept. 7.—In a dispatch from Petrograd a correspondent of the Havas agency says that the Russians took 70,000 Austrian prisoners and 200 cannon of various sizes around Lemberg alone. They also captured three regimental flags, forty-one cannon, two aeroplanes, fifteen officers and 1,200 men in other engagements in Galicia.

BELGIANS MADE TO DIG TRENCHES FOR GERMANS

Paris, Sept. 7.—An Ostend dispatch to the Havas agency says: "A new violation of the laws of war has been committed by the Germans. The military governor of Brussels has forced the civil guards, although disarmed, to help on the work of the fortifications of the city, especially trench digging."

The White Man's Burden

People are finding out that a lot of the troubles that go to make up life's burden are caused by

Tea and Coffee Drinking

Tea and coffee contain a drug, caffeine—from 1 1/2 to 3 grains to the cup. It not only stands to reason, but has been demonstrated scientifically and in practical experience, that this steady drugging is a foe to health and comfort.

A great army of people have found freedom from ills due to tea and coffee by changing to —a delicious pure food-drink, made from whole wheat and a bit of molasses. No caffeine, no drug, no harmful ingredient.

Even children drink Postum freely with benefit; they can't do that with tea or coffee.

Postum comes in two forms: Regular Postum, must be boiled, 15c and 25c pkgs.

Instant Postum, a soluble form, made in the cup instantly, 30c and 50c tins.

Grocers everywhere sell both kinds and the cost per cup is about the same.

WILL OFFER ASSISTANCE

Medical Society Will Treat Free Immediate Members of Families of Men at Front.

In view of the generous undertakings which have been made by various societies and individuals in connection with the welfare of families with breadwinners at the front, the offer of the Victoria Medical Society is in keeping with the public spirit of the profession.

At a meeting on Friday evening of the society, which includes practically all the medical men in the city, the accompanying resolution was passed: "That the members of the Victoria Medical Society will give medical care, free of charge, to the immediate members of the families of those men who are on active service, or are mobilized for home duty."

Each day adds to the list of patriotic offers of service by those whom the claims of home, or physical disabilities deter from active service. It will give a stimulus to recruiting for those who leave for the front to know that their dependents are cared for during their absence.

PUBLIC IN ATTENDANCE AT MILITARY SERVICE

Rev. Captain Campbell Conducted Service at Willows Camp; General Leave Yesterday

A large number of friends and relatives of the soldiers in camp at the Willows accepted the invitation to attend divine service in the camp yesterday. The Highlanders formed up on the parade ground, with the general public around the outside, while the Rev. Captain Campbell conducted the service. His sermon was most impressive.

The soldiers had luncheon immediately after service, and were then granted leave until 10 o'clock at night. The members of the B. C. Horse attended the service at St. Mary's church, Oak Bay, while the 85th Fusiliers and a portion of the 6th Regiment went to the Garrison church at Esquimalt. Leave was granted in these regiments for the afternoon and evening also.

The B. C. Horse members participate in the sports at the Willows track this afternoon.

MARKET PROPOSAL IS IMPORTANT SCHEME

Decision of Aldermen to Give Project Another Trial is Welcomed

The selection of Friday week for the test of the market proposal is fully in accord with the experience on the mainland. The most successful farmer's market in British Columbia is that at New Westminster, which occurs weekly on Fridays, and there it has been possible to secure good live stock auctions. These auctions are much desired by the committee which is acting in the matter on behalf of the Victoria and Island Development association.

The committee recognizes that if the market is to be a success, it must be conducted on different lines to the failure of twenty years ago, and that it is an essential to the success of the land settlement scheme which has received such widespread support in connection with the back to the land movement. The delayed negotiations about the Johnson street bridge proposal have held back one secondary effect of this scheme, the provision of a market under the eastern approaches to the bridge, which would have direct water transportation. It thereby secures one of the assets which have been of so much importance in connection with the New Westminster market, where most of the produce is landed from points on the Fraser river.

It is largely in a nature of a feeler that the present proposal is started. A committee of the city council months ago collected a great deal of information on the matter, hearing evidence from representatives of farmers' institutes and similar bodies, but no action was definitely taken because the farmers failed to supply the information desired by the committee as to how much produce would be available from the country round Victoria. Following the abortive attempt to establish a municipal market, a private venture was later launched in the old Presbyterian church.

What is desired on the present occasion is to secure the actual contact of the farmers with the consumers, to the elimination of the middlemen, where, the producers claim, is swallowed up the margin of profit on their cultivation. The fruit and vegetable growers around Gordon Head and elsewhere have had difficulty in assuring a regular market for their perishable products, and what they want, as must the men who follow the proposals outlined by the development association, is the assurance of something like an adequate return on their respective enterprises. Without a means of marketing the produce the back to the land movement must fall sooner or later, and of that fact the committee is fully cognizant.

It may be claimed that a single day's experiment is too timid a venture in a matter of this importance, but if there is behind that fact the knowledge that it would fill a void in the community, and supply what has been needed for many years, the public will give that support to the movement which it deserves. The work of the committee during the next ten days will be directed towards securing the public endorsement, and launching the proposal with a fair prospect of success, when the date comes round.

What Causes Wrinkles? What's The Remedy?

Stop to consider what produces wrinkles and sagging of skin. Premature aging, mal-nutrition, etc., cause the flesh to shrink, lose its youthful plumpness and firmness. The skin then is too large for the flesh underneath; doesn't fit tightly and snugly as it used to—it wrinkles or sags. It must be plain that to tighten the skin, make it fit the face perfectly in every place, will effectually remove the hateful wrinkles and bagginess. This is easily and harmlessly accomplished by dissolving an ounce of powdered axolite in a half pint of witch hazel and using the solution as a face lotion. The ingredients you can get at any drug store. The results are surprising. The skin immediately tightens up, becoming firm and fresh as in youth. Every wrinkle and sag is affected at once.

TRAINING GOOD FOR NATION'S PHYSIQUE

August Heinze, Well Known Capitalist, Believes in Military Service for Youths

On the course of a vacation trip through the northwest, August Heinze, the well known mining man and capitalist of New York and Butte, is a visitor in Victoria. He is registered at the Empress hotel.

Speaking to the Times, Mr. Heinze said: "The mining business has of course been largely affected by the war, though more, I believe, in this province than in the United States. The great trouble is that it is almost impossible to get ships for the output, and also there is no market except for a little lead."

Asked what effect the war would have upon trade, he replied: "As to that nobody can say, and speculation would be more or less of a surmise. I rather imagine that there will be a great dearth of food supplies throughout the world when the war is done, and when people have gone back to their ordinary avocations."

When questioned as to his opinion on the progress of the war, Mr. Heinze remarked that the censorship was so heavy in Europe, and the news that did come through was of so speculative a nature, that he did not care to offer any opinion. He thought that the general feeling throughout the United States was anti-German, for what reason he did not know, but he believed it might be because the United States people had the idea strongly in their minds that the Kaiser was to blame for the whole tragedy. He added that the papers in New York, and, in fact in all the big cities throughout the country, were very much against the Germans.

While the well known capitalist has no love for militarism and believes that it inflicts a great hardship on the peoples who subscribe to it in the way of taxes and service, yet he thinks it a good thing that the young men of a country should be amenable to some sort of military duty for a term of years. From the standpoint of raising the physique of a nation and keeping it from retrogressing physically nothing could be better than imposing so many years of military duty on every young man. He is not in favor, however, of big standing armies.

Mr. Heinze will remain in Victoria a few days. He has been to Utah, and originally intended visiting the mining districts of this province, but now finds he will not have time to go through.

Mistress—"And Jane, we'll have that small piece of meat as well." New maid—"Please'm, the cat ate it." Mistress—"The cat? Which cat?" New Maid (amazed)—"Oh, lawks! Ain't there a cat?"

AMALGAMATION IS SUGGESTED IN FUNDS

Mayor's Proposal May be Co-ordinated—Repairs to Rockland Avenue

In connection with the proposal to establish a mayor's fund for patriotic and other purposes, Mayor Stewart has received a telephone message in which the speaker made a suggestion with regard to the relief fund. It was proposed that the mayor's fund should be co-ordinated with the patriotic fund administered by a committee of which the lieutenant-governor, the premier, and others are members. The subject however has not yet been taken up.

The mayor is expecting to call the meeting, of which full details were given in the Times recently, at an early date as possible. It will be necessary to take action shortly on account of some of the outside work being closed down at an early date.

The city tax sale, which always falls in September, would have occurred tomorrow, but as in a number of other municipalities, it has been suspended. The officials in the treasury department have been particularly satisfied with the way in which taxes for the current year have so far been paid.

Financial officials are inclined to doubt the advisability of the Vancouver city proposal to ask the minister of finance to extend the same facilities to municipalities as is given by order-in-council to chartered banks to increase their borrowing powers. Vancouver proposes to ask the minister to lend $1,500,000 for the prosecution of public works, but local officials point out that the Dominion government would be flooded with applications if it should grant to any city government assistance of this character.

Drastic action in connection with the delinquents for local assessment for Rockland avenue paving some years ago has been postponed through the abandonment of the tax sale, and a final effort to secure a settlement is to be made on Wednesday, when the owners are invited to a meeting at the city hall. They will be asked to determine at that time whether in the event of the city spending $6,000 on improvements, the assessments will be paid without further trouble to the municipality.

A report upon the Point Ellice bridge repairs will be made to the city council to-morrow evening. Several tenders have bid for the work. Time to receive tenders for the city hall has been postponed for another week. They will be opened next Monday.

The meeting of the civic finance committee, postponed from this afternoon on account of the holiday, will take place to-morrow.
